عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ دِينَارٍ، عَنْ بَعْضِ أَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
قَالَ: قِيلَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ مَنْ أَحَبُّ النَّاسِ إِلَى اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ: أَنْفَعُهُمْ لِلنَّاسِ

Abdillah Ibn Dinar reported: Some of the companions of the Prophet (peace be upon him) reported: It was said: O Messenger of Allah, who is the most beloved people to Allah? He said: "[The most beloved people to Allah is] The most beneficial of them for the people."

BACKGROUND

A. INTRODUCTION

The Royal Award for Islamic Finance (Royal Award), first introduced in 2010, recognises and honours outstanding individuals who contribute significantly to the growth of Islamic finance, the global economy and social welfare of communities around the world. The Royal Award is given out biennially.

In conjunction with the upcoming Royal Award cycle, a new sub-award category is introduced i.e. the Impact Challenge Prize 2022, that is open globally to individuals, teams of individuals and registered companies.

B. CHALLENGE STATEMENTS

The COVID-19 pandemic has severely compromised the economic and social resilience of the world's population, causing financial hardships with disproportionate effects on the self-employed, women and young adults. Urgent response is imperative to contain damage and prioritise financial security to promote swift and sustainable recovery for these financially impacted communities across the globe.

The need to address these challenges laid the foundation for the Impact Challenge Prize 2022 to encourage innovative, game-changing proposals from around the world which can contribute to the following multi-dimensional outcomes:

- Positive and tangible impact in strengthening the economic and social resilience of financially impacted communities including the self-employed, women and young adults, focusing on the creation of new economic opportunities, growing entrepreneurial ventures, supporting re-employment/employment-transitioning schemes and affordable access to finance; and
- Continued expansion of Islamic finance global impact and consequent realisation of the Sustainable Development Goals, including through effective mobilisation of Islamic philanthropic capital.

Challenge statement tracks (list is non-exhaustive)¹

Building business capacity and creating employment

1. How can we help small business communities to expand business reach or enhance business efficiency using innovative solutions?
2. How can we build innovative solutions to empower small businesses and individuals to track their financial health, plan and make better decisions for long term financial sustainability?
3. How can we develop innovative solutions to help financially impacted communities harness new skills for sustainable business ventures?
4. How can we develop innovative solutions to effectively mobilise Islamic philanthropic capital to create economic opportunities?

Facilitating affordable access to finance including investments and financial protection

1. How can we develop innovative solutions to make finance affordable for financially impacted communities?
2. How can we use innovative solutions to help Islamic social finance support social protection schemes² to preserve the basic needs of financially impacted communities?
3. How can we improve the accessibility of investment and retirement products to future-proof the financial resilience of financially impacted communities?
4. How do we increase financial literacy among financially impacted communities to help build financial knowledge and address information asymmetries using innovative solutions?

While solutions need not necessarily be technology-driven, they must demonstrate inventiveness, impact, feasibility/commercial viability and scalability. Kindly refer to Section D. Eligibility Criteria and Section E. Evaluation Criteria of the Terms of Participation for further elaboration.

² Schemes such as those offered by the financial sector that mitigate risks through income support in the event of illness and injury, disability, loss of employment and old age.

TERMS OF PARTICIPATION

The Impact Challenge Prize 2022 is organised by Bank Negara Malaysia and the Securities Commission Malaysia in collaboration with the World Bank Group Inclusive Growth and Sustainable Finance Hub in Malaysia (hereinafter referred to as “the Organisers”). The Impact Challenge Prize 2022 is subject to the Terms of Participation in the ensuing paragraphs. By applying to participate in the Impact Challenge Prize 2022, the applicant(s) are deemed to have understood and accepted the Terms of Participation.

The Organisers reserve the right to effect any changes to the Terms of Participation at any time at their sole and absolute discretion without prior notice. Any changes to the Terms of Participation shall be published on <https://theroyalaward.com/impact-challenge-2022/>

By applying to enter the Impact Challenge Prize 2022, applicants and eventual winner(s) hereby agree to grant the Organisers and Malaysia Digital Economy Corporation (MDEC) (hereinafter referred to as “the Supporting Partner”) irrevocable, exclusive, royalty-free rights to use the entries submitted, including to create derivative works, reproduce, adapt and publish photographs/images/videos of themselves and the winning solution. The applicant(s) also hereby agree that the Organisers and the Supporting Partner reserve the right to use the applicant(s) name in connection with such use, but shall have no obligation to do so.

C. PRIZE PACKAGE

Winner(s) stand to win:

- Cash prize of USD70,000 or USD35,000 each for two (2) winners;
- Gain the distinction as a global Islamic finance solution, with prominent listing on the Royal Award website. Winner(s) may also be featured in any other publication or publicity materials of the Organiser and the Supporting Partner; and
- Opportunity to showcase solution during the prize ceremony at the Global Islamic Finance Forum 2022.

D. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

1. The Impact Challenge Prize 2022 is open to international participants which may be an individual, a team of individuals or a registered company.³
2. Solutions submitted must meet the following criteria:
 - If technology-driven: At least a minimum viable product. This means there should be at minimum, an available prototype of the product ready for deployment to be presented and not merely just an idea on paper;
 - Applies Shariah principles or is an enabler for Islamic finance⁴; and
 - Able to demonstrate positive and tangible impact in strengthening the economic and social resilience of the financially impacted communities.

3. Copyright:

Applicant(s) warrant that the solutions and any videos submitted will be the applicant(s)' own original work, in the applicant(s)' own words and may include personal experiences and professional observations. The applicant(s) confirm that they are the rightful owner or otherwise have the intellectual property rights to submit such materials, and therefore warrant that they have obtained rights in incorporating any copyrighted materials including but not limited to music, soundtrack, audio, graphics, images and video clips used in the video entry. Each entry and any part thereof shall not at any time infringe or violate any laws or the rights of third parties.

³ A company incorporated and registered with the relevant authority in its home jurisdiction. There is no restriction on the company's geographical location.

⁴ Solutions with underlying principles of Islamic finance or which enable Islamic finance to enhance and fortify the economic and social resilience of financially impacted communities worldwide.

E. EVALUATION CRITERIA

Applicants will be evaluated based on information submitted in the Application Form, which forms part of the Terms of Participation and includes the key criteria below.

1. Inventiveness

Originality of the solution – Demonstration of how the proposed solution is a unique and creative approach in meeting the multi-dimensional outcomes in Section B above.

2. Impact

Demonstration of the scale of impact – How the proposed solution contributes to the multi-dimensional outcomes in Section B above, including its ability in leading the target segment towards long-term financial sustainability.

3. Feasibility/Commercial viability

Status of development and long-term financial viability of the solution.

4. Scalability

Ease of adaptation and replication for wider application - How the solution can support a high volume of users/beneficiaries or meet expanded user requirements.

F. PROGRAMME PROCESS AND FLOW

Step 1: Application

- The applicant(s) are required to submit the Application Form and video of the products/services (where appropriate) for consideration before the stipulated deadline (Kindly refer to Section G: How to Enter below). The video should be no more than five (5) minutes in duration to showcase the innovation, practical function, risk control and market potential, among other features of the products/service.

Step 2: Evaluation

- There will be an initial review by a working committee comprising representatives of the Organisers and the Supporting Partner, where the committee will evaluate the applications and select shortlisted applicants for the next step.
- Applicant(s) may be required to provide clarification on the submitted proposals during the evaluation period.

Step 3: Virtual Accelerator Programme

- Shortlisted applicants will participate in a one-month interactive virtual accelerator programme and will be provided with dedicated support and capability training from expert coaches to assist in the refinement of the proposals.

- The accelerator programme is an important part of the innovation journey designed to assist shortlisted applicants to develop solutions that serve end users.

Step 4: Final Contest & Prize Ceremony

- Shortlisted applicants will be required to make a 5-minute virtual pitch to the panel of judges followed by a 10-minute Q&A session.
- Winner(s) will be chosen from among the shortlisted applicants by the Selection and Executive Committee members comprising eminent individuals, academicians, finance practitioners and financial sector regulators, alongside multilateral development banks and representatives of the Organisers.
- Winner(s) will be informed on the next working day after the virtual pitching session to judges and invited to receive the prize during the prize ceremony at the Global Islamic Finance Forum in October 2022 (date to be determined).
